To incorporate the violations contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violations previously reported to the Court on 3/9/2023.

Upon completion of his custodial sentence, Mr. Chavez-Venegas was deported to Mexico on November 22, 2022. As such, the probation officer was unable to review the conditions of supervision with the offender.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following conditions of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

3	Mandatory Condition #1: You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.

Supporting Evidence: On or about August 17, 2023, Armando Chavez-Venegas allegedly violated mandatory condition number 1 by committing the offense of alien in the United States after deportation.

On February 20, 2023, the offender was removed from the United States, through the San Ysidro, California, Port of Entry, after he had been located attempting to enter the United States in Long Beach, California.

On August 18, 2023, the offender's daughter contacted the U.S. Probation Office to advise that her father had been arrested in Wenatchee, Washington, the night prior, and transported to the Okanogan County Jail.

Special Condition #1: You are prohibited from returning to the United States without advance legal permission from the United States Attorney General or his designee. Should you reenter the United States, you are required to report to the probation office within 72 hours of reentry.

Supporting Evidence: On or about August 17, 2023, Armando Chavez-Venegas allegedly violated special condition number 1 by returning to the United States without legal permission from the United States Attorney General or his designee.

As previously noted, Mr. Chavez-Venegas was arrested in Wenatchee, Washington, on August 17, 2023. A subsequent record check revealed the offender had not requested or obtained permission to the return to the United States, and had thereby entered the United States illegally once again.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court to incorporate the violations contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violations previously reported to the Court.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
